The Digital Engineering Awards 2024

The Digital Engineering Awards, in association with ISG, L&T Technology Services, and CNBC TV 18, is a first-of-its-kind venture. We are honoring the achievements of business and technology leaders who have championed the cause of sustainable change within the industry - for a better planet and a better tomorrow.

The Awards

The Awards are categorized into team and individual awards a.k.a. 'Engineering The Change' and 'Engineer At Heart' respectively - further divided into eleven categories.

Innovation and collaboration have been an integral part of our core values since the very beginning. The Digital Engineering Awards is a pioneer attempt to celebrate those whose oeuvre reflects these values above anything else.

To sum it up, we have

Engineering The Change - Team Awards

Engineer At Heart - Individual Awards

One Amazing Experience

in-store for you.

The Finalists

When we say that they are the personification of the spirit of innovation and the epitome of engineering excellence, we are not exaggerating. These organizations and individuals are making an active difference through that one craft that we all admire - engineering.
